What's Goin' On? Prompt

- WHO: YOU! Asian-American students from around the country, high school, college, whatever!
- WHAT: Telling our stories and experiences with and within the Asian-American student communities we come from, that we belong to, that we feel excluded from. This is not limited to activist stories! Tell us about the musical you sang in, the chemistry class you took, that girlfriend you fought with, that parade you were in, as long as it is through the lens of an Asian-American experience.
- WHERE: Submit stories, 500-700 words, to naascon.news@gmail.com to be posted on our website at www.naascon.org.
- WHEN: Stories can be submitted between February 2 and March 1, 2008.
- If you will be on the East Coast, please join us for a discussion at the East Coast Asian American Student Union conference February 15-16, 2008 on the next steps to be taken after this campaign.
- WHY: As Asian American students spread across thousands of miles, we are isolated from each other's experiences. Our hope as NAASCon is to use this collection of experiences to build solidarity and relationship across distance.
